

May 2, 2019

Dear Customer,

The government shutdown has delayed the annual revision of the Special Enrollment Examination. The examination administered starting on May 1, 2019 has not yet been updated and reflects tax law for the calendar year 2017. A revised examination will be released on July 1, 2019 and will be based on tax law for the calendar year 2018.

This means that between May 1 and June 30, 2019 the exam will be administered as usual. However, the questions on exams taken before July 1 will be based on tax law prior to tax reform.

This may be an advantage to test takers who feel more comfortable with the “old” tax law. For those who want to take the exam based on the “new” tax law, it’s not too early to study.

We have made it possible for all test takers to have the material that is right for them, regardless of when you will take the exam this year. To make this possible, Tax Preparer Learning Systems, LLC has decided to provide buyers with exam material for BOTH calendar year 2017 tax law AND calendar year 2018 tax law - all at one low price. Purchase today and have all the exam study material you will need for exams all the way through February of 2020.

Current pricing (good through June 30, 2019):

- Comprehensive Package, All 3 Parts - $129.99.
- Part 1 or Part 2 or Part 3 purchased separately - $59.99 each.

All purchases include both online questions and study guide.

Good luck on the exam.

Sincerely,
